OPEN ENDED

What is the strongest aspect of the instructor's teaching in this course? Give specific example, if possible.

- She gave great assignments that challenged us
- She gave us a variety of viewpoints to look at. The New York Times podcast was a very nuanced interpretation of the events that occurred.
- She was available to help and replied to emails quickly
- The way she connected assignments to real life situations going on was very helpful in understanding the current state of our country.
- Jane is a fantastic teacher. Her willingness in providing other sources for students to further their knowledge on the course topic outside of the class was great.
- Her examples of what she wanted for our discussions posts
- Jane always made sure the readings/videos/podcasts were relevant and the material actually mattered. Some podcasts were only released a week or less before they were assigned.
- Her clarity and support during the class. She was always helpful with any issues. For example, when I was hitting paywalls she gave me her personal accounts.
- Every assignment and quiz was straightforward and understandable. There were no sneaky tricks or anything that was meant to screw you up rather all the information was given which helped me succeed. The assignments were engaging and I was genuinely interested in what we were learning about. The focus on modern topics really helped me engage in the work and make it more enjoyable overall I just loved the class.
- She's outgoing and a fair grader
- Expectations of the students was very clear.
- I really liked how available she was with communication. I also really enjoyed the different types of learning she provided (i.e. podcasts, news articles, etc.)
- Great choice of readings and videos to help understanding of material

What could the instructor do to improve his/her effectiveness? Again, please be as specific as possible.

- N/A
- Probable extend the deadlines. Not by much, just an extra day.
- Trying to be more neutral in information presented, rather than leaning strictly to one side.
- Nothing, I was extremely satisfied with Jane as my instructor for this class.
- I did not enjoy all the podcasts, I find them hard to comprehend when they do not have a transcript with them.
- Honestly, this course runs like a well-oiled machine. There is nothing I could offer to improve Jane's teaching.
- I honestly can't think of anything because I felt like I learned very easily, and really enjoyed the teachings of the class.
- Nothing
- Teach content that is more inclusive to all political groups.
- I would like this course more if the assignments on the weekends were moved to the weekdays.
- N/A
- None I can think of!

Overall, what is your opinion of this course?

- Good
- Very good. Makes great case for local journalism.
- I liked it. Very important source to learn how to be up to date with current news
- It was a very informative course and I enjoyed taking it.
- Great course! Stimulating, interesting, and very well put together.
- This was a smooth course
- I loved it! The material was genuinely interesting and the assignments were not too hard to be frustrating and not too easy to not be stimulating.
- I learned so much from this course and would take more courses from Jane if I could!
- AMAZING
- Very disappointed with this course. Classic UWM liberalism showing here. The entire course content was about Trump and Republicans being bad people. Keep in mind not everyone is a liberal at this University that wants to learn about content only suitable for their ideologies. I had to lie and go against my own beliefs for this course so that I knew there would be no bias against me or have my classmates get mad at what I was posting. While the entire class focused on Trump being a liar, we learned about Hillary Clinton and it was weird how the lesson about her and pizzagate was all about how she was innocent and everyone made her out to be a liar. UWM needs to be better than this and teach content that is fair to all political groups because this class was awful when it came to that and changes the way I feel about this University for allowing this class to be taught.
- It was really interesting given news materials that I wouldn't have otherwise read.
- I thought it was very interesting and relevant to our current political culture. It did a great job of opening my eyes up to journalism and changing some of my views on local journalists.
- Great course overall and very informative and practical.
